Dear Santa: Please cancel that order for a sewer for the court house, as the city is going to lower the sewer right away.

While we know there will not be many ads for week after next's issue, scheduled for Tuesday, December 24th, we urge that such people as want ads in the GCW will remember the advanced date of issue, Tuesday, December 24th.

Anent the sign erected by the sheriff of Shelby County, Tennessee, warning people of the hell on earth just over in Mississippi (run by Shelby County thugs, and patronized by Shelby County crap shooters), we suggest that the sheriff get out his Holy Bible and read Matthews: 7:3.

I see that one little girl in Grenada wants Santa Claus to bring her a "sicycle". That's right, just the way we read it. Another wants some "candi". Santa Claus will have a hell of a time filling those orders.

Several of the boys in the Headquarters Battery have accepted our offer to send the GCW to their parents. They promise to pay $1.50, thru Corporal Whitaker, on the first or second pay day. All parents of boys in this outfit should get the GCW, for we are going to have news from camp every week from our correspondent there, Corporal Whitaker.

Mr. Dan Cook, from San Bernandino, California, who left this country 50 years ago, is visiting his uncle, Mr. Jutt Cook, at Mt. Nebo.

City Hotel is having its face lifted.

Supervisor Jim Elliott, we are happy to report, is much better, and will leave the hospital soon unless complications develop.

We are sorry to report that our friend and neighbor, R. L. Spain, is very desperately ill.

I expect they are going to have to take Red Briscoe on a pleasure trip to New Orleans if he does not hush up.

Dear Santa: That lady who, elsewhere asked for an ermine coat, says just bring her a dictionary so she can work the puzzles.

John Goings, old ager of state, if not national fame, came over from Calhoun this week, and honored our office with a call.

Dear Doctor Walker: I want to come up there Christmas week. If you can, I would like to go back to Dr. Rey's ward, and have my "old" bed.

Commander Talbert asks us to remind Legion members of the regular meeting Friday night.

CORRECTION

Lickfold's Jewelry Store, Ladies' Watches, as small as a dime, in yellow gold, should have been listed from $10.75 up instead of $15.75 up.

Our friend Morrow broke his arm last Friday week. That's no joke, and I do not want you to ask me how he broke it, for there's no catch in it. And, for the benefit of some of the people who look askance at minor peccadillos, he did not break it raking in poker chips. It was a legitimate break, no fooling.

Speaking of the Commercial Appeal, we see sometimes a little something with a Grenada date line, but not much.

We have been so busy with first one thing and then the other that we neglected to say that Bother F. Z. Huffstattler, who tried manfully to convert the heathens (?) at Providence for seven or eight years, has moved to Sledge on a similar mission.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA

A silver offering will be taken to defray expenses of the books.

Samuel Cochran Mims, 92, Died Here Saturday

Mr. Samuel Cochran Mims, Sr., died in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Constance Mims Thompson, in Grenada at at 4:15 a. m. on Saturday, December 7, 1940.

Mr. Mims was born near Culahoma, Marshall County, Mississippi, on October 29, 1848. He was a son of David Henry Mims and Eliza Cochran Mims, pioneer slave-owning planters of that historic county. He attended the elementary schools of that section during his youth, but, attaining college age at the time that the South was prostrate from the effects of the Civil War, he could not attend college but, finding the slaves free and the whole economy of the plantation disorganized had to devote his attention to the care of his aged parents and younger brothers and sisters and to the rehabilitation of the plantation. He occupied only one public office, that of supervisor from his beat in Marshll county. On October 10, 1876, he and Mrs. Jessie Thompson of Marshall County were married. His wife died about two years ago. Twenty-two years ago, he and his family moved from Marshall County to Grenada County where Mr. Mims bought the "upper" McSwine tract in Beat Four, and to this farm he devoted his attention until feebleness retarded his activities, since which time he has been at the home practically bedridden. Everyone liked Mr. Mims for his kindly manner, his hospitality to friends who dropped in, and for the friendliness with which he always greeted those he met. Before health prevented, nothing pleased him more than to foregather with his friends on the court house stoop and there spend the afternoon discussing the issue of the day.

Sunday afternoon, with the modest home crowded with friends and neighbors and with many more outside, Rev. T. B. Thrower, following the request of the deceased conducted a simple ceremony, after which the body was carried to Odd Fellow cemetery where, after committal services, the body was placed beside those of Mrs. Mims and a son, David Mims, who died in service during the World War

Active pallbearers were Messrs. W. B. Nicols, Oscar Geeslin, Avent McElwrath, Harry Wilson, L. P. Horton, and Lewis Dubard.

Honorary pallbearers were Messrs. R. D. Sharp, Rice E. Pressgrove, W. M. Dubard, John Rundle, J. T. Thomas, J. S. Sharp, R. W. Sharp, J. L. Hamilton, J. H. Horn, T. M. Smith, W. B. Hoffa and W. K. Burk, Sr.

Surviving Mr. Mims are two daughters, Mrs. Constance Thompson of Grenada, and Mrs. Metta Jones, of Macon; one son, Mr. S. C. Mims, Jr., of Grenada, four grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

To the sorrowful ones, we extend our sincere sympathy.

Elsewhere in this issue is a splendid tribute paid by the Men's Bible Class of the Methodist Church, of which Mr. Mims was a devoted member.

Taxes Reduced One Half Mill In Grenada

Grenada city taxpayers will be called upon to pay 29 mills, instead of 29 1-2 mills as last year, upon their taxable wealth, when tax paying time rolls around next Spring. General Fund levy remains at 7 mills; Bond Tax Fund was reduced one mill, to 12 mills, while the School levy was increased one-half mbill to 10 mills.

Last month the board proposed to get a change in the city charter so that, if necessary, it would have the power to raise the General Fund levy from 7 to 9 mills. This intention to change the charter was published. Monday night of this week when the board met it was faced with a formidable petition asking that an election be called upon the proposed charter change, whereupon the board ditched the whole matter of charter change.

The board is to be congratulated upon finding means of reducing taxation instead of increasing taxation.

Each member wrote Santa a letter and these were read and guesses made as to who wrote each. A special song was sung by Mrs. J. E. Cantrell, "Santa Claus is Coming", then every one began to look at the Christmas tree which was beautifully decorated and realized than Ole Santa was already here. The hostess began giving out the nice presents to the members and visitors. The last box was for Mrs. Neely, filled with all good things to eat, such as canned fruits and vegetables, sweet potatoes, eggs, butter, jelly, pickles, pepper sauce, home made fresh sausage, milk, turnips, canuts, popcorn, and other good things. Mrs. Newt Woods clothes pin apron was voted as the most useful article given as a gift.

Christmas Home Lighting Is Urged

At the executive meeting of the Grenada Garden Club, at the home of the President, Mrs. Sam Simmons, Sr. the following plans for Christmas lighting were made. Out of town judges will decide on the most attractive house front, doorway, window, and outside tree or other outdoor decration.

There are to be three electric lamps given by the Mississippi Power and Light Company for the three first prizes, a vase donated by the Garden Club as fourth prize.

The lights are to be turned on in the home decorations Monday, December 16th and judging will take place Monday, December 23rd, thus giving the judges ample time to make their decision.

The Garden Club requests that every home be lighted for this happy Christmas season, thus continuing the name for Grenada as "The City Beautiful."

Mrs. E. R. Proudfit,
Press Chairman,
Grenada Garden Club.

For some reason or another Max Yeager missed his paper last Saturday (I'll swear I did not cut him off, for he has been sending "word"), and lo and behold he sent his son in early Monday morning, and the son carried back a recipt good until next August.

Christmas Lighting Contest For Grenada and Holcomb

Various prizes will be awarded again this year to the citizens of Grenada who most appropriately express their Christmas spirit with sparkling Yuletide lighting decorations.

The city-wide Christmas Lighting Contest, sponsored by the Methodist Missionary Society in Holcomb and the Garden Club in Grenada in cooperation with the Mississippi Power & Light Company, is open to everyone interested in winning a handsome prize with their home lighting decorations.

Judging for the contest will be based on four main points:

(1) Adherence to the Christmas theme; (2) Artistic effect; (3) Possibilities utilized; (4) Outdoor lighting effects.

More consideration will be given by the judges to the manner in which the lighting is used rather than to the number or brilliance of the lights. The with fried shovel bill catfish and judges will be all-interested persons chosen from the community.

Three classes of Christmas lighting will be eligible for the contest. Prizes will be awarded under the following classifications:

(1) Best House Front—Floor Lamp, (2) Best Tree or Shrub—Table Model Lamp; (3) Best Doorway or Window—Table Model Lamp.

Opening and closing dates for the contest, as well as the nature of the numerous prizes, will be announced in the near future by the sponsors.

Interest in the annual Christmas Lighting Contest, which has served each year to make Grenada more beautiful and cheerful than before, has increased considerably since the first competition was sponsored four years ago.

In 1937, a total of 41 Mississippi cities took part in the holiday contests. In 1938, this number rose to 7, and last year 58 communities held Christmas lighting contests.

Also increasing with the years has been the ingenuity of local contestants in using simple colored lights to make their homes glow with a friendly Christmas spirit.

Red Briscoe Analizes Local Power Situation

I have assimilated Commercial Rates Structure that are accurate and correct that has been painstakingly gathered by diligent efforts and continuity of time that I believe will readily show capacious differences in comparison with our present rate structure that has become so problematical compared with other cities.

The City of Canton has a Municipal Light Plant and their commercial rate structure, in accordance with their superintendent's personal survey of the writer's place of business several days ago just assuming our business was located in Canton, on a 3.5 KW load as ours is and our consuming 926 KWH their charge for this amount is $33.72, under our present commercial rate structure this same bill, some load, same KWH consumption is $40.00, and may I ask what part of this $40.00 is paid to our city exclusive of a wee small pinch for taxes of utilities? Canton's yearly average distribution of accumulated funds are:

Average Bond Retirement and interest paid	$ 8,000.00
Average Funds put back into their plant's extension and improvements	10,000.00
Cash paid to the City's fund	27,000.00
Free Street Lighting, etc. based on rates charged by private utilities, equivalent to	8,000.00

Our city paid a total of $9,585.62 this year for current in all the different departments, however, $5,466.78 of this amount was paid in settlement of a rendered bill for $7,493.22 and the power company gave the city a check for $1,952.90 all in settlement of a long and outstanding disputed current account, our city is now paying near $500.00 per month for the current that our different units use, we did not recive much here but we paid plenty. I know we are not an insatiable group of people, neither are we spotless and without fault, but let us consider that our present rate structure on the average business houses creates a monthly electrical bill that is sometimes equal to and overplus our monthly rates of our business, who would not be of a grimage attitude instead of ludicrous laughter, I see no mount-anous obstacles that would definitely impair our desires and hopes and fumed fate action for a city owned plant that we need so badly.

Let us assume that we own our plant and distribution lines and that the difference between our present rates and Canton's billing were paid into the city treasury by us each month and that the city would also pay into the treasury the approximate $500.00 monthly that is now the expense of power, how long would it be before we would be free from heavy indebtedness, small millage taxat on, own a plant that would be an asset to us, have ample funds for any necessary adventure the city saw fit and also be fabulously well off?

My position in this hoped for evolvement is that I am only a molecule of Grenada and that I have no proverbial adulate ax to grind, however, I do wish to grind my own personal ax in the form of adequate and appropriate power rates, and to grind my ax your ax must be included too, in our adoption of a reasonable rate we, too would receive some of the cream instead of the well known Bluejohn that we are all so personally familiar with now. If we just must have utilities in our keep, won't someone suggest that they live with us, that might possibly decline the gigantic cost of their sustainance, or maybe we should move in with them, we could at least correll a barrel of money in that way. I wonder if mine is a lonely plight or if I am an adversary to that end or if I am wrong in my efforts, I am gladly open for discussion either pro or con. I have had many compliments but not enough of them of a determined nature. We are people that are worthy of the good things that are due us and our Hon. Mayor and Board of Aldermen are a just and considerate quorum of efficient and capable officials but they are certainly and decidedly not supernatural. They must have the wholehearted and unfaltering support of we the people to ever effectively accomplish this on any other coveted project.

I have cordial invitations from various cities to visit their plants to thoroughly investigafe investigate and look over their mode of operations, I shall be glad to extend this invitation to you you and you and also reveal the information of facts that I have so painstakingly gathered.

C. W. (Red) BRISCOE.

The Intermediate Girls' Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church, chaperoned by their counselor Mrs. Henry Ray, and Mrs. J. E. White, had a very impressive and enjoyable "Yule-Log Lighting" Monday night on the Airport Grounds.

The occasion was of a two-fold purpose in bidding farewell to eight of the group who will in January leave to join the "Young Women's Auxiliary" of the church and to welcome a group from the Junior Auxiliary.

The girls prepared supper baskets and invited boys to meet them at Mrs J. E. White's and all hiked to the Airport, where the logs were ready and Louise Avent, president of the Auxiliary struck the first match.

Around the bright flames they sang Christmas Carols, school and religious songs, popped firecrackers and enjoyed the spirit of the "Yule-Log."

After supper they attended the picture show. CHAPEL PROGRAM

Wednesday the students of Grenada High had the privilege of hearing Mr. Sid Law, active engineer on the I. C. system and resident of Memphis, give a short talk on safety. Mr. Law has for some time been giving safety talks all up and down the I. C. line.

He stated that there are four cars for which every driver is responsible or liable: the car he is driving, the car in front of him, the car behind him, and last, the most dangerous of the four, the car that comes rushing out of blind intersections. He stressed the importance of not driving too close to the car in front, of giving the proper signals to the car behind, of being careful and slowing down at blind intersections, and of keeping check on the condition of the car, its brakes, lights, etc.

He also called attention to the grade crossings and the danger connected with them and said how railroad men fear them even more than the motorist does.

He closed by urging all to take a higher regard for safety and then demonstrated the correct signals to use when stopping or turning.

It was a most enjoyable talk and a timely one, and we hope to be able to hear Mr. Law again.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

On Monday night the Varazo Brothers and Dale Harper gave a banquet in honor of this year's football squad. This affair took place at the Robert E. Lee Cafe.

Besides Miss Jackie Lane, football sponsor, and Miss Martha Johnsey, Home-Coming Queen, the other special guests were Mr. Rundle, Coach and Mrs. Hathorn, and Coach Slaton.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club is now working very earnestly on the Christmas Cantata which is to be presented December 18 at 7:30 in the High School auditorium. The Cantata this year will be "The Nativity Song." In addition to this there will be special solos and quartets given by voice students. Miss Donalson on behalf of the Glee Club extends an invitation to the public to attend this program.

GIRL RESERVES

By making gifts for hospital patients, the Girl Reserves have been doing their part toward the season of giving. Last Thursday the Club met in Triangles, each of which made one scrapbook of cartoons, which will be sent to the hospital to lighten the hours for the sick.

BASKETBALL GAMES

The Grenada boys team, with Tommy Houston, the newly elected captain, rang up victory over Holcomb. The going was tough during the first three quarters of the game, and only in the last quarter was the 27 to 25 victory assured.

The game Tuesday, December 3, was another triumph for the team. The Bulldogs trimmed Duck Hill with a 28 to 17 score. The boys team is still undefeated this season.

The girls team, who elected Marjorie James captain, played a good game but were edged out both Friday night with Holcomb, 33 to 24 and Tuesday night with Duck Hill, 25 to 12.

Stop And Read This

Once upon a time there was a young man who came to Grenada to go into business. He had lots and lots of friends here. Everyone liked him and wished him well. This served to cheer him on. He was glowing with warmth of cordiality that he found among the townspeople. But, also several weeks later he found out, by accident, that a near neighbor—who seemed so much interested in his business adventure—had gone to Memphis and bought several hundred dollars worth of merchandise of the exact quality, price and kind he offered for sale. The young business man lost 20 percent profit on the deal, while the neighbor gained neither quality nor money nor a wider choice.

This set the young man to wondering, as well it might set us all to wondering. His thoughts were somewhat along this line: "Sure, it's a free country. You can buy where, what and when you please, from whom you wish. I have no just complaint. But still I can not but wonder why my neighbor did not think of me when she made this large purchase. I could give her everything she got in Memphis. I wonder why she did not buy it from a hometown merchant."

Another young man came back to Grenada to settle down, having finished college and married. He was pepped up over the prospects of a secure, steady business future here among his friends and kinsmen, of which he has many among readers of this newspaper. This young man sells electric appliances, among other things. His stock includes a nationally advertised vacuum cleaner, selling at a standard price everywhere. Imagine the dismay and chagrin, the abashment, the sheer discouragement facing the young fellow when he went home one day to find that his wife had bought a vacuum cleaner from one of the door-to-door solicitors!

In this particular case the lady could have saved actual money by buying from her husband. Why didn't she think first of buying from a home town merchant? Why didn't she consult her husband? The answer would probably be, "Oh well, you know women!" Well, we don't know women, but it does seem to us that this business of buying in Grenada and NOT buying in Grenada boils down to something more fundamental than forgetfulness on the part of a young wife or an elderly friend, as might conceivably been the cause in the two cases cited.

Do Grenada people realize that because of modern distribution methods and advertising that prices and quality of thousands of articles in daily use are standardized? Do they realize that they can buy refrigerators, automobiles, mattresses, tooth paste, suits, face powder and thousands of other articles for exactly the same price in Grenada that they can in Memphis, New Orleans or anywhere else in the United States? This is a selling story that local merchants MUST put across. Apparently hundreds of people in Grenada do not realize the strict truth of that statement. As a matter of fact, hundreds of nationally advertised products are sold CHEAPER in Grenada than in Memphis because the local merchants have less overhead and because the manufacturer permits these lower prices OUTSIDE the large cities. We imagine our local merchants can confirm this statement with actual articles and prices.

Take the case of a certain store. This store sells a lawn-mower regularly for $6.25. This identical lawn-mower, advertised in a SPECIAL sale in the big city, was priced at $6.95. The difference is not generally known because the big city merchants advertise regularly, the local store only once in a great while. There certainly is no logical reason why a man should go all the way to Memphis and pay MORE for a lawn-mower and haul it all the way back to Grenada. If he wanted to buy it here, he could call up over the phone, and have his lawn-mower in 30 minutes. In addition, the local merchant would likely charge it until the first of the next month.

We have confidence in the people of Grenada and the people of Grenada's trade territory. We believe they will buy from their hometown neighbor and merchants if they are fully informed about the facts involved. The people of this community have shown many times that they act wisely, when fully informed.

This newspaper, given the support of the local merchants, will try to continue to bring you the facts about buying in Grenada from your neighbors. We are confident that, with proper cooperation, we can help bring results, as we have done for many "causes"—political causes excepted—that we have espoused.

Food Stamp Plan

Yalobusha County and Tallahatchie County, the two counties that with Grenada County would make a suitable 75,000-population unit for administering the Food Stamp Plan, appear to be keenly anxious about establishing the plan in their resective areas. This county should, if it intends to get itself in line for approval, begin at once, for, otherwise, it will be "the old cow's tail" in the procession if it does not mind.

At the present time, the matter seems to be lagging. Maybe those retail merchants who at first were so keen about the matter are busy caring for the Christmas bus about the matter are busy caring for the Christmas bus that, while Christmas business is now with us, the after Christmas slump is just about two weeks ahead.

If this plan were desirable just for merchants, we would not be as keen as we are for it. The plan was not designed to benefit merchants, but to benefit the relief clients, and to benefit the producers of the food products—the farmers. The real benefit to the retail food merchants is purely incidental to the government's main objectives—to provide more consumers for surplus farm products, and to raise the diet level of the relief clients.

Even if the benefit to the retail merchants is purely incidental, it is a very great benefit, and we are frankly surprised at the positive indiference of some of the men whom the installation of this plan would help greatly, and we are surprised at the lack of effort being put forth by others who, while giving lip service to the plan, do little else to get it installed.

Me and the GCW.

"Hill" Council Needed

The Hill Council proposed by Mr. Byron Hunter, of Grenada or some other organization designed to coordinate the profiting and other endeavors of the people of the hill section of Mississippi is badly needed. Those who read the list of donations made by the federal government to the several counties of Mississippi (those who get the lowest part of the gravy refer to this donation as having been varied, of course) saw where the hill counties got the hole in the doughnut, while their Delta brothers who have had sense enough to organize a Delta Council to coordinate their efforts and unify their efforts got the luscious doughnut.

The Hill Council could try to get a Soil Survey similar to that which the Delta Council has already secured for the Delta section; a WPA project was made to classify the various soils of that section, to show each individual land owner just what each of his fields needed in the way of fertilizer, and just what each field was best adapted to. One farmer was getting 140 pounds of cotton from a particular tract; after receiving the proper information from the Soil Survey, and adapting that information, he raised his production on that tract to 680 pounds.

There is a great need in the hill section for some organization which will provide the leadership in concerted efforts to "get what's coming to us." The proposed "Hill" Council is the first thing EVER proposed to do this. We are 100 percent for it.

A suggested way to finance the Council is to get cotton producers to allot only ten cents per acre of allotted acres to this cause. We have 360 acres of land, and 24 acres allotted for cotton. We hereby pledge our ten cents an acre, or $2.40.

You Can Buy It Here

You can find what you want in Grenada. Have you asked for it. Have you searched ads in your local newspapers for it.

If you have not done these things how do you actually KNOW a Grenada merchant can not supply it?

Why go to Memphis to shop?

Is merchandise cheaper there? Have you compared prices advertised in Grenada with prices advertised in Memphis? Have you figured what a day's or an afternoon's shopping in Memphis costs? Have you considered all these things?

If you have not done all of these things how do you KNOW that things are cheaper in Memphis?

Why do you go to Memphis to shop?

Do you prefer to pack yourself into a mob of people, all hunting for bargains, specialties, necessities in busy downtown shops of Memphis? Do you prefer to seek a salesgirl or salesman in the midst of a tremendous uproar in a busy Memphis store? Have you considered that you get PERSONAL service from your FRIENDS here in Grenada stores, where business is not conducted in a high-pressure atmosphere?

If you have not considered all of these things, how do you KNOW that Memphis is the best place to buy?

Consider what Grenada merchants have to offer you during the Christmas season. They offer quality merchandise! They offer competitive prices!

They can save YOU money, and you can save money for GRENADA by buying HERE.

No Longer Sacrosanct

Governor Johnson has finally been able to obtain from the State Tax Commission the figures on certain tax matters that a legislative committee failed to obtain.

While we have always felt that the State Tax Commission under its present chairman was an efficient and an honest body, we have never shared the belief of some, that it was sacred, and that its personnel was infallible. The Chairman of the State Tax Commission is yet a human being, and his employees are human. None of them are saints, none angels.

We are glad that Greek Rice, the Attorney General, dug up some law which permitted the Governor to review the papers in the office of one of the state departments. To keep the chief executive of the State in the darkness concerning ANY matter in ANY department, even the sacred State Tax Commission, has always been ridiculous to us. It looks like the common law would permit the "boss" to inquire into what employees were doing, how they were doing and to whom they were "doing" it.

"Substantial" Welcome To Grenada

The newcomer to Grenada, thanks to the Lion Club Welcoming Committee (and the GCW, which publicized the idea), will now receive not only a warm handshake and a verbal "welcome," but will receive a printed card which will entitle him to many useful presents from the business people of Grenada—a day's supply of milk, his first prescription free, a couple of theatre tickets, a free want ad, a month's subscription, etc. etc.

We of this section need something. Maybe it is the "Hill" Council. Certainly, the hill farmers are getting poorer and poorer, and the delta farmers are getting richer and richer under the present AAA allotment of cotton acreage.

MANY southern industries are strenuously at work building new plants, expanding existing ones, and generally gearing their facilities and man-power to advance the nation's defense program.

It is a tremendous and urgent job they have taken on. Their rapidly increasing communications needs create an equally important job of service expansion for the Telephone Company, including the engineering and installation of enlarged telephone facilities in many localities.

These industries are going ahead with their production and expansion activities and plans, with confidence that the Telephone Company will meet their telephone needs promptly and fully. Their daily requirements are being provided now, and the thousands of highly trained telephone workers are prepared with materials and experience to meet whatever service demands the future holds.

Grenada Home Guard Meets Approval Of State Officers

The Grenada Home Guards, composed both of members of the Grenada Post of the American Legion and of some non-service men, was said by State Adjutant Morrow to be one of the most complete organizations in the state. It is understood that legislation will be necessary fully to incorporate this newly formed body and other similar bodies throughout the state into the state organization as a legal entity. Gus Gerard "Makes" Who's Who

Mr. Gus Gerard, son of Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] of Grenada, who is a student in the University of Mississippi Law School, is among students who will be listed in the forthcoming issue of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. The book will be released in January or February.

This publication is published through the cooperation of over 500 American universities and colleges. It is the only means of national recognition for graduates which is devoid of politics, fees and dues. Several students of accredited colleges are selected each year by an unprejudiced committee for their biographies to appear in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. The books are placed in the hands of hundreds of companies and others annually who recruit outstanding students for employment.

The purpose of Who's Who is to serve as an incentive for students to get most out of their college careers, as a means of compensation to students for what they have already done; as a recommendation to the business world and as a standard of measurement for students comparable to such agencies as Phi Beta Kappa and the Rhodes Scholarship Award.

Mr. Gerard is a member of S. A. E. fraternity at Ole Miss, is treasurer of the Associated Student Body, assistant business manager of the school weekly newspaper, the Mississippian, president of the Hermean Literary Society, president of the Episcopal Club, a member of Scabbard & Blade, which is the national honorary military fraternity, a member of the MOAKS which is a senior honorary society, a member of the International Relations Club, a member of the Gym Dance Committee which is host to all dances given in the college gym, a member of the senior Y cabinet, a former member of the University Band and of the Cardinal Club which is the Sophomore honorary service club.

Mr. Gerard graduated from Riverside Military Academy, Gainsville, Ga. in the class of 1937 and was enrolled in the Grenada Schools for his elementary education and for the first two and one half years of high school work.

While in Grenada High School Mr. Gerard attained the rank of Eagle Scout, the position of solo trombone solo in the Grenada High Band. At Riverside he wrote the school paper, was a member of the soccer team and of the band.

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

George Terrell's reputation as a circular distributor is growing. He is too close to waste them. Just try to get him to give you two, if you do not believe it.

Christmas, with unwanted gifts, is just around the corner. If anyone wants to give me anything, please bring me a mess of young turnip greens.

A Bilboite was fussing because I did not put what Bilbo was thankful for in the Thanksgiving issue. I did, and the paper itself will show it, that Bilbo was thankful for Red Briscoe.

Inevitably good business is ahead. With billions being spent in the industrial regions, Grenada will get the hundreds and thousands. Good times, if they can be called such, are inevitable. But, look out for pay day, which is also inevitable.

We read with much interest an editorial and several quibs in a marked copy of the New Albany Gazette sent us by its publishers. It looks like everything is "set" in Union County for the Food Stamp Plan except the politics. What's the matter, boys, didn't you vote right?

Speaking of the Food Stamp Plan, we note strong editorial endorsement of the Plan in the Freestate Sun.

Mary Cain is still quarreling about the November election. That's over, Sister Cain, and as final and as irrevocable as the defeat of your gubernatorial candidate, Mr. Bailey.

At the deer camp recently attended by several of our local deer killers, several pints were killed, and several poor little craps were shot. That's all.

Mrs. J. W. Lipscomb, one of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dubard's fine daughters, and a resident of Jackson, where her husband is a skilled physician, will continue to receive the news through the GCW, as a timely remittance has been received.

"Skeet" Alexander, of Memphis, honored us with an appreciated call recently, and paid in a good excuse, which we accepted like cash money.

Derned if I remember whether we mentioned Sister E. V. Aldridge of Route 2 and Sister A. R. Finney of Route 5, as new subscribers. If we did, there's no harm in mentioning and thanking them a second time; if not, here's welcome and thanks.

May we mention in one item to save space the acquisition of three new "two bitters" (those who got the GCW for two months for 2 bits): Mrs. Lila Clogston, Mrs. Blaylock and Eddie Davis, the latter of Graysport. That's killing 3 birds with 1 stone.

YULETIDE PROGRAM

On Sunday evening, December 8, a beautiful sacred program was staged in the basement assembly room of the Presbyterian Church at 7:30.

Rev. C. A. Pharr opened the service with prayers.

Mrs. E. R. Pleasants sang "Ave Marie" by Gounod and during this song, Mrs. Lamar Chamberlain, dressed in flowing robes, stood in tableau impersonating Mary, the mother of Jesus.

Mrs. Cowles Horton spoke on "Looking through the Chrisamas window." Rogers Pleasants read the Christmas story from the Bible.

In the three tableaus the following appeared:

In group one, representing a family, were Mrs. Junius Townes, Jr., as C. V. McKell, Mrs. L. E. Noble, Ann Robinson, Byron Hunter and Joe Talbert.

In group two appeared Miss Mary Ella Collins and Miss Cornie Perry.

In group three Mrs. S. H. Horton, Miss Margueret Stockard and David Childress appeared.

Throughout these scenes, beautiful Christmas Carols were sung by the choir. Mrs. Pleasants, leader.

During the offertory, a very touching and beautiful tableau was arranged. The beloved Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Salmon impersonated the aged minister and wife. The offering was a special gift to retired ministers. At the close of the program Rev. Pharr pronounced the benediction.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

The meeting of the Fortnightly Club occurred on Wednesday afternoon of last week at the charming home of Mrs. E. R. Pleasants on Snider. Mrs. Cathey called the meeting to order at 3:15 and an interesting program followed roll call.

Mrs. Joe Thomas' topic was "Southern Mountaineer," Mrs. C. V. McKell spoke interestingly about Jeanne Thomas, an ardent worker among the mountain people. Mesdames E. R. Pleasants and E. E. Penn sang "Home to Our Mountain," by Virdi. At the business meeting it was stated that the club is providing milk for 63 children. The churches were thanked for the Thanksgiving offering given to the milk fund.

Plans for a benefit script dance given during Christmas week, to aid the milk fund, were discussed. The date of the dance is to be announced. Coca-Colas were served.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE HAS FIRST MEETING

On Wednesday night, December 4, the Junior Classical League had its first meeting. The members gathered at the home of Miss Lucile Pierce for the invitation of the eighteen new members. The older members acted as judges. First, the new members each conjugated the Latin verb sum, backward. Then, they sang "I Love You Truly" in Latin. After this the judges greatly enjoyed watching the efforts of the new mebers dramatizing "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star" also in Latin. Then the very difficult examination on mythology, conducted by Marguepete Stanley, was undergone. Later, a Latin game of Lotto was enjoyed by all the guests. The party then turned into an informal election, for the selection of the new officers for the year. Marguerite Stanley was elected president, and Lucy Moss, reporter and program chairman. Lucy Moss appointed Margaret Green, Jean Scott, and Terry Mack Clogston as members of her committee. It was decided that the J. C. L. would meet once a month.

The guests then adjourned to the Rose Cafe for refreshments. While here, the new members were told that all had passed the initiation test.

The Junior Classical League is a national organization for Latin Students interested in club work. It is spensored by the American Classical League. Last year the Grenada chapter was one of three in Mississippi.

MRS. LICKFOLD HOSTESS

The Friday Bridge Club met at the lovely new home of Mrs. Fred Lickfold, Jr., this past week. Three tables were arranged in the living room for the games. Two non-member guests, Mrs. B. M. Smith and Miss Lucy Webb Sharp enjoyed the hospitality of the home and meeting with the members.

At the conclusion of the games the hostess served delectable sandwiches and Coca-Cola.

Mrs. Rogers Burt compiled high score and received a beautiful miniature.

Miss Bettye Sherwood, of Tupelo, spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brown spent several days the first of the week in Memphis.

MacDOWELL MUSICALE

The handsome home of Mrs. Raphael Semmes, on Margin Street was the scene of the December meeting of the MacDowell Musicale on Wednesday of last week.

The reception hall, living room and dining room presented most attractive appearance and a spacious and comfortable setting for the presentation of a most interesting program.

Mesdames D. G. Ross and W. J. Jennings were special guests.

Co-hostess were Mesdames Walter Garner and Misses Mabel Walker and Olivia Wilkins.

A delightful dance number by four little girls, pupils attending Martha Geeslin's Dance Studio, was enjoyed very much by the Club members. This group included Olive Semmes, "Kitsy" Bailey, Sis Shaw and "Tootsie" Bailey. They were dressed in Gypsy costumes.

The club program for December.

ON THE PASSING OF SAM C. MIMS, SENIOR

"Life's race well run,
Life's work well done,
Life's crown well won,
Now comes the rest."

In the early hours of Saturday morning an angel slipped softly into the room where one of God's saintly servants had been sleeping away the final days and hours of his long and useful life, and from that room the Holy Messenger emerged unseen and accompanied the soul of our faithful friend and brother to the God he so earnestly worshipped.

Whereas, the final chapter of the long and pious career of our Friend and Brother, Sam C. Mims, Senior, has been brought to an end, and

Whereas, Brother Mims by his exemplary life, his gracious friendship, his everyday devotion to high civic and moral ideals has endeared him to every member of our class.

Therefore, Be It Resolved: That in the passing of Brother Sam C. Mims, the Men's Bible Class of the Methodist Church is deeply grieved over the loss of one whose quiet presence added spiritual strength and devotion to the group with which he loved to mingle.

Be It Resolved Further: That this class condoles deeply with the family of our departed brother and join them in resignation to the will of the God their father so devoutly worshiped. His more than fourscore years of saintly life, fatherly guidance, and religious fidelity are a glorious heritage that few possess.

Be It Resolved Finally: That a copy of these Resolutions be sent to the family of our deceased brother, that a copy be given the local press, and a final copy remain as part of the records of our class.

Mrs. M. S. Walker

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the library Monday afternoon for a social with the following members present: Rev. and Mrs. H. N. McKibben, Mrs. Ralph Moore, Mrs. A. L. Starks, Mrs. F. M. McCuiston, Mrs. J. E. Pattridge, Mrs. W. E. Tyler, Mrs. S. S. Caruthers, Miss Essie Curry, Mrs. George Holmes, Mrs. C. W. Norwood, Miss Myrtle Moore, Mrs. H. L. Hamberlin, Mrs. Clirence Webb, Mrs. E. A. Moore, Mrs. J. C. Sledge, Mrs. Pyron, Mrs. Claude Thomas and Mrs. Walker. The special guest of the Society was Miss Pob Anderson, of Grenada, charming twin sister of our president, Mrs. Ralph Moore. Mrs. Caruthers, who had been living in California for several years was welcomed back by all the members and won the prize in the quiz contest. The four little mascots who seem to get as much kick out of these grown people' socials are: Hammond Moore, Frances Norwood, Carolin Hamberlain, and Patricia Caffey.

Numbers for the exchange of gifts, had been drawn the week before and a tray was passed with the duplicate number for each to pick from tray and then a basket was brought in and, after the guest gift presented to Mrs. Anderson, the numbers were called out and there was much fun, amusement and appreciation expressed by the recipients as the names of donors were noted in the unwrapping of the packages. We had such a big surprise when the honor guest presented us with the loveliest little gift for our what-not. It was the most charming little bride and groom and we have named them Mr. and Mrs. Bob Anderson, this handsome little couple we will prize the rest of our lives for the joy and happiness they will bring us in all the years to come. Happiness and sunshine on rainy days and other days when we are inclined to feel blue we will just look at this wonderful little couple and forget we were ever sad. We are so grateful for this gift, and the thoughtfulness that prompted the giver.

After the gifts were checked out, fruit and candy was served, the offering was taken and the meeting adjourned to meet again after Christmas. We missed the several members that were absent, Mrs. T. P. Caffey, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Riley and Mrs. Blaylock.

Mrs. Edmonia Ford, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Tyler, has gone to spend a while with her grand-daughter, Mrs. H. L. Vilee and family in Clarksdale. Mrs. Ford makes her home in Newelton, La.

Mrs. R. A. Billups, after several weeks' visit to her mother, Mrs. W. E. Tyler, has returned to her home in Oklahoma City. She was accompanied as far as Memphis by Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Gillespie, of Jackson, who came up Sunday evening and spent the night with Mrs. Tyler, Mrs. Gillespie's mother.

Mrs. D. T. Gates who formerly resided in Philip, has moved to Duck Hill and we mentioned the Davis family moving here from Eupora and the Cox family from Senatobia, so you see Mr. Editor of the GCW we are doing some growing in this neck of the woods ourselves.

Joe Nash, a faithful old colored man was taken suddenly sick Friday and died Saturday night. He was respected and appreciated by all that knew whim and will be missed. A number of white friends attended his funeral Monday afternoon.

The Mississippi Power & Light Co. are doing it again. Putting on a "Lighting Contest" giving away lovely prizes to the winners. Making their windows, doors, or Christmas trees look just as beautiful as they can—but those people are all right anyway and believe in spreading joy. Mr. Wood comes to collect the light bills and it's a joy to pay him—for what would we do without lights.

FERGUSON-SHERMAN

The wedding of Miss Eula Katherine Sherman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sherman, of Wyatte, Ark., and Mr. James Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ferguson, of Grenada, was solemnized Monday morning, December 2, 1940, at Helena, Ark., the Rev. Mr. Patchel, officiating.

The bride is a graduate of the high school at Wyatte, Ark., and is a gracious and pleasant young lady. The groom is a splendid citizen of Grenada County. He is employed with the road construction unit in Beat 2.

After a honeymoon spent in Memphis the young couple returned to Grenada to reside.

We add our congratulations to those of other friends and wish for them happiness in their life together.

My Column

Whyte Whitaker Jr.

The following letter is from G. C. Marshall, Chief of Staff; to Lieutenant General Herbert J. Broos, Commanding General, Third Army; reproduced at Headquarters Third Army and sent to battery commanders. This letter has been read to all officers of the Third Army. There is food for thought in it.

WAR DEPARTMENT
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF STAFF
WASHINGTON
October 16, 1940

SUBJECT: Morale and discipline.

To Lieutenant General Herbert J. Broos, Commanding General, Third Army.

1. The United States has embarked on an extensive peacetime program of national defense. The President has provided the leadership, and Congress, with the support of the American people, is granting the essential funds. Industry and labor are rapidly mobilizing to produce munitions. The National Guard is taking the field. Recruits are reporting to their regiments in unprecedented numbers, shortly to be joined by large numbers of their fellow citizens, chosen under the Selective Service Act. The preliminaries are over. The task now looming before us is the expeditious development of a unified, efficient fighting force of citizen-soldiers.

2. The Army of the United States, keenly aware of its great responsibility assumes this task as a profound privilege.

3. First in importance will be the development of a high morale and the building of a sound discipline, based on wise leadership and a thoughtful consideration for officers and enlisted men by their commanders, will produce a cheerful and understanding subordination of the individual to the good of the team. This is the essence of the American standard of discipline, and it is a primary responsibility of leaders to develop and maintain such a standard. To this end, commanders of all chalons are directed to study and apply the provisions of Mobilization Regulations 1-10, regarding Morale.

4. The adoption of a peacetime Selective Service system presents a special problem for all components of the Army. The men selected for service, together with those now enlisting, are representative of the citizen-soldier who has always defended our nation in the past. The men come from all walks of life, with widely varying degrees of education, intelligence and native ability.

They differ in racial characteristics, religion, philosophy, social training, physical development and material wealth. It will tax the skill and wisdom of leaders of all ranks to mold these citizen-Soldiers into a unified Army prepared to accept cheerfully the rigors of long hours of training, the fatigue of marches, and the discomforts and hardships of service in the field. The officers and noncommissioned officers who will have charge of these men must be instructed in advance concerning every phase of their reception, equipment, care and instruction, and the execution must be carried out under the alert supervision of higher commanders.

5. In accomplishing the foregoing, there must be no pampering of individuals. No distinctions between men because of their previous mill-mutual respect and cooperation, the Army of the United States must now proceed with its high purpose of welding from the elements of the American democracy a disciplined, seasoned fighting force capable of defending the nation.

G. C. MARSHALL,
Chief of Staff

Sunday afternoon the Battery will hold an open House. Come one, come all, visit with us and see what we are doing, where we eat and sleep, where we work and play. We sincerely hope that all of you that possibly can come will visit with us on this day. It will be a pleasure to show you around the camp.

***

Mess Sergeant Carl Shaw, with the help of cooks par excellent, Pat Austin, Jesse Thompson and Leonard Bagwell, are preparing one of the best means I have ever seen in an army camp. Uncle Sam buys the best grade of food obtainable for his men. If the food should get bad we know where to lay the blame. So keep up the good work fellows.

***

This week I received a copy of the Mississippi Dragon which is published by and for the 114th Field Artillery. Its Editor, 2nd Lt., Hodding Carter has gotten out quite a credible sheet. We understand it will carry stories of camp activities.

***

The Social Service Department of the All Saints Episcopal Auxiliary presented this writer with a kit containing the following articles: Four bars of Palmolive soap, Palmolive shaving cream, bottle of Woodbury lotion, bottle of perfume, container of Absorbine Jr. jar of Fay Wood hand lotion, bar of Gardenia, Fay Wood cream soap, nail file and clipper, tooth brush, after shaving talc, cadet whisk brush, tooth paste, a mirrow, hexylresorcinol solution and a bottlte of borolyptol.

Words, mere words, cannot express my appreciation of this princely gift. These kind ladies are ever ready to lend a helpful hand. Again, I thank you from the depth of my heart. God bless all of you.

Incidently, the United States has never lost a war and it never will.

The Headquarters Battery, First Battalion, 114th Field Artillery's departure date has been postponed until Tuesday of next week. This makes about four delays since mobilization date. However, it seems evident to the battery personnel that we will leave in the next eleven months if we are going to get any of the year's intensive training.

Former Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of which Mrs. Ida Campbell is leader held their last meeting of the year on Monday evening at the Methodist Parsonage with Mrs. T. B. Thrower as hostess. The home was very beautifully decorated with Christmas decorations including candles, shrubbery, etc. and a Christmas tree filled with gifts. Mrs. Thrower was assisted in receiving and entertaining by Mrs. Vassar Dubard, Mrs. R. A. Grisham and Mrs. J. S. Hodges. A number of very interesting games and contests were introduced by Mrs. Thrower with Mrs. Hodges being most successful in the contest. She was given a stick of candy as a prize. After the games Mrs. Thrower gave in comical comical way a reading which was an illustration of a man purchasing a pair of "Mules" for his sweetheart's Christmas gift. The group then enjoyed singing Christmas Carols after which Rev. T. B. Thrower acting as Santa Claus presented gifts from the tree to every member present.

Mrs. R. H. Herring then presented Mrs. Campbell with two gifts from the Circle and in a very impressive way expressed the Circle's thanks and appreciation to Mrs. Campbell for her untiring efforts and work in making this a most successful year. Mrs. Campbell responded in her usual way and expressed a feeling of regret that the circle must disband. Plate lunch with hot chocolate was then served and the meeting closed with a general feeling of much fun and merriment by all.

DUPLICATE CLUB

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Charles Dickinson entertained the Duplicate Bridge Club at her home on Fairfield.

Three tables were arranged in the charming living room for the games. All guests present were club members but two, Mesdames E. L. Bass and E. L. Morrow, who were invited to share Mrs. Dickinson's hospitality.

At intermission the hostess served delectable cookies, sandwiches and coffee. High score was compiled by Mesdames Roger Burt and Chas. Dickinson. Second high by Mesdames E. L. Morrow and Rob Brown.

BAND BOOSTERS MEETING

At the regular monthly meeting of the Grenada Band Boosters Club, held Tuesday night, December 10, Mr. Dollarhide presented a portion of the band in a short musical program, which included old favorites, such as "Sewanee River," "Silent Night," "Dixie," and "Old Folks at Home."

Gratifying reports were given by the chairman of the various committees. The Cake Walk, given the latter part of November, was a great success, and another one is being planned for the near future.

A committee was appointed by the president, to act in conjunction with committees of other organizations who are sponsoring the Community Christmas Tree.

The next meeting of this club will be on January 14, 1941.
